

Healthy Halloween!

PLAYWORKS

Pumpkins & Play in NW Portland
A fun friend-raiser event for
Playworks and NW 23rd Businesses

Saturday, October 30th

12:00–4:30pm

at Playworks (NW 23rd and NW Quimby)

Take those costumes for a test drive and bring the family to NW 23rd Avenue for a "Healthy Halloween" October 30th!

- Come by for a healthy treat and shop sweet deals along NW 23rd from Burnside to Vaughn, and everything in between
- Awesome face painting (compliments of Style Ink) and watch master pumpkin carver Tom Ziemann & World Champion carver Tim Pate demonstrate their skills culminating with a raffle and take home prize of one of their final spooky creations
- Stop by Playworks for fun games and give them a high-five for being selected as a featured nonprofit in the 2010 Willamette Week Give!Guide
- Take the street car or enjoy complementary parking at Legacy Good Samaritan garages 1, 2 & 3 (entrances on NW Northrup, NW Marshall and NW Kearney streets)

Enter to win a fabulous Jack-o-lantern or carved pumpkin!

Enter our raffle for an incredible Jack-o-lantern by Tom Ziemann or carved masterpiece by Tim Pate. Wow your friends & neighbors with the most amazing pumpkin in the neighborhood!

Tickets: $5 each / Five for $20.

Can be purchased on-line www.playworks.org/portland (until 4pm 10/30) or at the event.

Invite your friends & family, and please help us spread the word!!

"Healthy Halloween" is a community event organized by Playworks and supported by businesses along NW 23rd Avenue who display the Playworks Willamette Week Give Guide poster in their storefronts. As a community, we encourage you to support healthy and inclusive play for all kids this holiday season, thank you and PLAY ON!! playworks.org

#####

Playworks' mission: to improve the health and well-being of children by increasing opportunities for physical activity and safe, meaningful play