

SPLAT

- 1. The player standing in the middle of the circle is the "Splatter".
- 2. The Splatter randomly points to someone in the circle and shouts "SPLAT!"
- 3. The player that's pointed at must duck down; then the two players on either side of the "ducker" must "splat" each other by pointing to the other and saying "SPLAT!"
- 4. The last one to splat the other person sits down, and the player ducking stands back up.
- 5. If the ducker forgets to duck, they have to sit down instead of the Splatters.
- 6. The game continues until there are two players left, have them Ro-Sham-Bo to determine who will be the new Splatter in the middle.
