

Playworks Professional Development

Participant Survey Results

Participant Experience

Training participants shared their overall reactions to the training:

97%

of participants were satisfied with their overall experience

96%

of participants felt the trainer's techniques helped facilitate learning

98%

of participants agreed that the training was worth their time

Participant Learning

Participants learned about the Power of Play

98%

of participants reported that the training helped them think about play in a new way

88%

of participants learned a great deal or many new things about the benefits of play

I learned a great deal

52%
of participants

I learned many new things

35%
of participants

I learned a few things

12%
of participants

I didn't learn anything new

1%
of participants

Participants learned new strategies to leverage the Power of Play

New strategies to engage students

89%
of participants

Promote a positive environment for your staff and students?

89%
of participants

Promote a welcoming environment for all students

87%
of participants

3,485 responses